

John Brown's Raid Sesquicentennial Tour

THE NATIONAL
CIVIL WAR
M U S E U M

Tour Date:
October 24, 2009

Join the Lancaster Civil War Round Table and The National Civil War Museum as we visit the place where it all began...Harpers Ferry. A wreath laying ceremony by the United States Marine Corps Historical Company will be held at the grave of Private Luke Quinn in St. Peter's Catholic Cemetery.

Included in the tour will be a stop at the Jefferson County Museum, which contains artifacts from various periods of history. Most importantly, the museum houses the wagon on which John Brown sat on his own coffin and road to the gallows, as well as one of the pikes he intended using to arm the slaves. We will gain special entrance to the court room where the trial was held and also visit the site of the execution. Dinner at Brewer's Alley is included as well as a candlelight ghost tour of Frederick, MD.
