

National Civil War Museum Advisory Council Member

Member Contact	Organization	Location
John H. Verrill, Executive Director John Verrill is the Director of the Manassas Museum System. He has 22 years of museum experience. John was the former Director of the Eastern Shore of Virginia Historical Society. He has a B.A. in History/Social Science and is the recipient of the Small Museum Association Award for Service to the Museum Community. The Manassas Museum Center is a 7,000-square-foot building on eight acres, which opened in 1991. Permanent and temporary historical exhibits interpret Northern Virginia Piedmont history through artifacts, documents, videos, and images. The Museum houses the McBryde Library and Archives and Echoes, the Museum Store. The Manassas Museum System includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Manassas Industrial School/Jennie Dean Memorial</li><li>• Mayfield Forts</li><li>• Cannon Branch Forts</li><li>• Historic Liberia House</li><li>• Manassas Railroad Depot</li><li>• Candy Factory Arts Center</li></ul> For more information, visit www.manassasmuseum.org	Manassas Museum System	Manassas, VA