

NCWM and The United States Marine Corps announce 15 Years of Toys for Tots Partnership

(Harrisburg, PA) – The National Civil War Museum and the United States Marine Corps (USMC) are teaming up to bring Christmas to Harrisburg's children in need for the 15th consecutive year. Through the joint efforts of The National Civil War Museum and the USMC, support has been given to numerous social organizations and more than 30,000 children are served each year.

The 2015 campaign will kick off on Friday, October 30 at 9:00 a.m. in the Museum's Grand Rotunda with representatives from the USMC and the local business community.

Guests are invited to join us in our Grand Rotunda to ensure that needy children have a happy holiday. Visitors who bring a new, unwrapped toy valued at $10 or more will receive one free admission to the Museum the day of donation or 2 coupons valid for 50% off a future visit (limit 2 free admissions or 4 coupons per family).

The National Civil War Museum will be accepting toy donations from October 30, 2015 through December 11, 2015. Celebrate the holidays with the United States Marine Corps and The National Civil War Museum!

About The National Civil War Museum: Opened in February 2001, The National Civil War Museum, a member of the Smithsonian Institution Affiliations Program, is a non-profit private educational institution dedicated solely to the American Civil War. It is one of the largest museums in the world which interprets the entire American Civil War from a military and civilian perspective. The Museum preserves and exhibits some of the nation's treasures, including General Robert E. Lee's personal Bible, and more than 24,000 artifacts, documents and photos. Admission to the Museum is $11.00 for adults, $10.00 for seniors, and $9.00 for students with reduced rates for children and families. The Museum offers complimentary ample parking.
