Join CEO and Licensed Battlefield Guide Wayne E. Motts, along with the staff of The National Civil War Museum, on a unique and never before offered tour of all three days of the Battle at Gettysburg. This tour will consist of stops on the Gettysburg Battlefield and will feature artifacts, photographs, and letters of soldiers who fought in the struggle. Tour participants will be able not only to see, but to actually hold historical treasures used and/or associated with men of the Union and Confederate Army engaged at Gettysburg. Wayne will give a narrative tour of the fighting through these items at each major location of the battlefield. All three days of the action will be covered. Here are just a few items planned to be featured:

- Bible Carried by Confederate General Robert E. Lee
- Military Commission of Union General John Buford
- Gauntlet of Union Colonel Patrick H. O'Rourke
- Tactical Manual of Union Captain Henry F. Fuller (64th NY)
- Sword used by Confederate General Joseph B. Kershaw
- Signed CDV of Union Captain Thomas O. Barri (11th US)
- Flag of the 3rd North Carolina Carried on Culp's Hill
- Coat worn by Union General George Sears Greene
- Sword used by Union General Alexander S. Webb
- Belt belonging to Medal of Honor Receipt Union Lieutenant Alonzo H. Cushing
