The National Civil War Museum Earns the Coveted "Readers' Choice" Award for Best Museum

(Harrisburg, PA)–The National Civil War Museum is proud to announce it has been chosen to receive Harrisburg Magazine's Readers' Choice award for Best Museum. This honor is granted by reader votes and The National Civil War Museum would like to thank all the supporters who contributed to making us Readers' Choice for Best Museum in 2015. An awards ceremony for the winners in all award categories will be held on August 27th at the Penn Harris Hotel and Conference Center in Camp Hill, PA.

Museum CEO Wayne Motts says "All of us here are humbled and honored that The National Civil War Museum was named Readers' Choice for Best Museum in the region for 2015 by the readers of the Harrisburg Magazine. As a national and international destination of choice for so many travelers from around the globe, to be honored on the home front, is truly gratifying."

About The National Civil War Museum

*Opened in February 2001, The National Civil War Museum, a member of the Smithsonian Institution Affiliations Program, is a non-profit private educational institution dedicated solely to the American Civil War. It is the largest Civil War museum that addresses the war from both the Northern and Southern perspective, and from both a military and civilian perspective. The Museum protects some of the nation's treasures, including General Robert E. Lee's personal Bible, and more than 24,000 artifacts, documents and photos. Admission to the Museum is $10.00 for adults, $9.00 for seniors, and $8.00 for students with reduced rates for children and families. The Museum offers complimentary ample parking.
