Sweat and Steam this Summer at the NCWM

(Harrisburg, PA) – The National Civil War Museum announces a new exhibit, Sweat and Steam: Transportation in the Civil War, opening during their annual June Community Free Day. This exhibit will examine the various transportation methods available in the North and South and how their use helped determine the course of the Civil War. The NCWM is giving the community a chance to see this important exhibit completely free of charge and offered in conjunction with a full day of activities.

Opening day for the Sweat and Steam: Transportation in the Civil War exhibit will be June 23, 2018 and will run until June 2, 2019. The NCWM proudly highlights specific topics of the American Civil War with two specialized exhibits each year, included in the cost of regular admission to the Museum.

For a complete listing of other events at the Museum, please visit the Museum website: www.nationalcivilwarmuseum.org or call 717.260.1861.

About The National Civil War Museum: Opened in February 2001, The National Civil War Museum, a member of the Smithsonian Institution Affiliations Program, is a non-profit private educational institution dedicated solely to the American Civil War. It is one of the largest museums in the world which interprets the entire American Civil War from a military and civilian perspective. The Museum preserves and exhibits some of the nation's treasures, including General Robert E. Lee's personal Bible, and more than 24,000 artifacts, documents and photos. Admission to the Museum is $12.00 for adults, $11.00 for seniors, and $10.00 for students with reduced rates for children and families. The Museum offers complimentary ample parking.
