

2018 Spring & Summer Living History at the NCWM

(Harrisburg, PA) - The National Civil War Museum announces the last encampment of the 2018 Spring/Summer Living History Schedule. This encampment will include infantry units, loading and firing demonstrations and much more! Museum visitors will see the flash and smell the smoke of Civil War muskets and rifles. Visitors are encouraged to visit the camps and ask living historians questions about their attire, food rations and daily life. Most infantry groups perform loading and firing demonstrations each day.

- August 18-19, 2018 - 2nd Rhode Island, Co. B

Saturday demonstrations are at 11 am, 1 pm & 3 pm and Sunday demonstrations are at 1 pm & 3 pm. Regular museum admission applies for entrance to the museum galleries.

For a complete listing of these and other events at the Museum, please visit the Museum website: www.nationalcivilwarmuseum.org or call 717.260.1861.

About The National Civil War Museum: *Opened in February 2001, The National Civil War Museum, a member of the Smithsonian Institution Affiliations Program, is a non-profit private educational institution dedicated solely to the American Civil War. It is one of the largest museums in the world which interprets the entire American Civil War from a military and civilian perspective. The Museum preserves and exhibits some of the nation's treasures, including General Robert E. Lee's personal Bible, and more than 24,000 artifacts, documents and photos. Admission to the Museum is $12.00 for adults, $11.00 for seniors, and $10.00 for students with reduced rates for children and families. The Museum offers complimentary ample parking.
